

*The 32nd Annual
Charleston APRN
Conference*

February 18-20, 2026

*Welcome to our
Hybrid Conference
Francis Marion Hotel*

In Person Conference Policies

We are grateful for your cooperation in abiding by the following policies:

Sessions: Please do not change your session assignment without approval. Due to space limitations and trying to ensure that area is not too congested, we have scheduled you based on capacity of the event rooms. On Wednesday, all sessions will be held on the Mezzanine Level in Carolina Ballroom “B” which is located on the Mezzanine/Meeting Level with all presentations available in-person or virtually. In-person attendees have the option to access the sessions virtually in location of their choice. On Thursday, we will have breakout sessions during the morning, with one group assembling in Carolina Ballroom “A” and the other group meeting in Carolina Ballroom “B”. The afternoon sessions will come together in Carolina Ballroom “B”. Friday, we will have breakout sessions again, however the rooms will be either on the Lobby Level in the Colonial Ballroom, or on the Mezzanine Level in the Pinckney Room. The afternoon General Session will be held in the Colonial Ballroom. As always since the onset of COVID, we are assigning people to rooms to try to ensure appropriate distancing. We hope our in-person attendees are comfortable with the spacing.

Masks are optional for attendees, please safeguard your own health as much as possible. The email you have received confirming your registration will identify which sessions you were assigned to attend based on your registration and your name badge will show the sessions you are registered for as well.

Claiming Your CE Hours. Each participant is required to complete evaluations for each session they attend. When you have completed your attendance for the entire conference, in addition to completing the evaluations you will need to complete a CE Claim Form annotating which sessions you attended for generation of a personalized CE Certificate. After you have registered for the conference and paid your registration, you will receive a receipt identifying which sessions you are registered for. The week prior to conference’s start we will send you another email which gives you links to:

- All conference sessions
- Evaluation Forms for each day
- CE Claim Forms

Statement of Liability:

The information given by the 32nd Annual Charleston Advanced Practice Nurses’ Conference Faculty has been researched by the presenter, making certain that the dosage of drugs and schedules of treatment are correct and compatible with the standards generally accepted at the time of the presentation. Nevertheless, as new information becomes available, changes in treatment and in the use of drugs become necessary. The participants are advised to carefully consult the instructional and informational material included in the package insert of each drug or therapeutic agent before administration. This advice is especially important when using new or infrequently used drugs. The 32nd Annual Charleston Advanced Practice Nurses’ Conference Planning Committee disclaims any liability, loss, injury or damage incurred as a consequence, directly or indirectly, of the use and application of any of the contents of this training or information given in a presentation.

CEU Distribution Policy

CEU certificates will be generated and emailed to participants after submission of your evaluation and CE Claim form and will reflect the attendance in the groups you claimed and were enrolled in. Any requests for CEU certificates should be submitted to by submitting the required CE Claim Form or requesting via email to Mdnhvn@aol.com or mailing request to:

Psychiatric Advanced Practice Registered Nurses (PAPRN)
c/o Shelby Rials, 125 Hobden Court, Lexington, SC 29073
Email: mdnhvn@aol.com

Conference Materials

Will be available on the conference website for 6 months after completion of the conference. After that, if you need to access the file, notify webmaster Shelby Rials at mdnhvn@aol.com

Virtual Attendees – Policies

We are grateful for your cooperation in abiding by the following policies:

Sessions: This year we are not limited to the number of attendees per session. You can go into either presentation during the breakout sessions. During each session, if you have questions for the speakers, you will be able to type the question into the chat box. Your questions will be shared with the presenter by the session Proctor. While in each session, your microphone will be muted by the room proctor, if the presenter is accepting questions, you will be able to use the “hand raise” button to signify you have a question/comment and you would be able to “unmute” yourself. Please only use one device to enter the conference. If you try to enter on two devices, it may cause audio issues for the other attendees.

Entering your session – “meeting room” - You will receive an email with the links to enter the conference near the time of the conference. We will also be loading the links to the sessions onto the conference website prior to start of the conference. These links will not be live until the specific date and time of each session. Any problems getting online the day of the conference, you can contact a member of our support staff for the conference. Their contact number which will go to one of the IT staff is 803-445-4334

Claiming Your CE Hours. Each participant is required to complete evaluations for each session they attend. When you have completed your attendance for the entire conference, in addition to completing the evaluations you will need to complete a CE Claim Form annotating which sessions you attended for generation of a personalized CE Certificate. After you have registered for the conference and paid your registration, you will receive a receipt identifying which sessions you are registered for. The week prior to conference start we will send you another email which gives you links to:

- All conference sessions
- Evaluation Forms for each day
- CE Claim Forms

Statement of Liability:

The information given by the 32nd Annual Charleston Advanced Practice Nurses’ Conference Faculty has been researched by the presenter, making certain that the dosage of drugs and schedules of treatment are correct and compatible with the standards generally accepted at the time of the presentation. Nevertheless, as new information becomes available, changes in treatment and in the use of drugs become necessary. The participants are advised to carefully consult the instructional and informational material included in the package insert of each drug or therapeutic agent before administration. This advice is especially important when using new or infrequently used drugs. The 32nd Annual Charleston Advanced Practice Nurses’ Conference Planning Committee disclaims any liability, loss, injury or damage incurred as a consequence, directly or indirectly, of the use and application of any of the contents of this training or information given in a presentation.

CEU Distribution Policy

CEU certificates will be generated and emailed to participants after submission of your evaluation and CE Claim form and will reflect the attendance in the groups you claimed and were enrolled in. Any requests for CEU certificates should be submitted to by submitting the required CE Claim Form or requesting via email to Mdnhvn@aol.com.

Conference Materials

Will be available on the conference website for 6 months after completion of the conference. After that, if you need to access the file, notify webmaster Shelby Rials at mdnhvn@aol.com

